

Handwriting practice area consisting of ten sets of horizontal lines. Each set includes a top line, a middle line, and a bottom line. Scattered across these lines are several colored circles: red, green, and dark green. The circles are positioned at various points along the lines, serving as visual guides for letter placement and size.

